

Project Paraguay Foundation outreach in July 2015

Church planting and discipleship

Tana Robbins leading a group of children at an outreach in Marin, a rural community outside of Luque.

Outreach at Mariano, another small community outside of Luque.

A new concrete floor at Barrio Parque!

New windows installed at Barrio Parque.

Many women grew in the Lord at the Women's Conference in July at El Renuevo.

The façade at Barrio Parque. Note the new door, windows and newly completed stucco and paint.

Bob Sowers helping to install new computers at the school at El Renuevo in Luque.

Preparing for conduits at Barrio Parque.

Digging a trench for the electrical conduit for the church building at Barrio Parque.

This is the church at Barrio Parque before the work completed in the past two years. Note there is no roof, no door, no windows, and The floor is dirt. It is now a completed building for worship, teaching, and outreach for the community.

Nancy, a member of the El Renuevo church in Luque, next to a poster advertising the Women's conference.

Gordon Caylor and Pastor Maureira looking at plans for construction.